No. 5427—C. B., dated 31st May 1940.

The following Press Note issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department is republished for general information.

By Order,

B. T. KESAVIENGAR,
Chief Secretary to Government.

PRESS NOTE.

The enemy trading provisions of the Defence of India Rules will apply if trading is carried on with any area which is in the occupation of a Power with which His Majesty is at War. At the present time Denmark is in German occupation, and commercial, financial, or other intercourse with persons or concerns in Denmark is prohibited. This prohibition, however, does not apply to Iceland or to the Danish dependencies of Greenland and Embroilment Island, so long as business with them does not involve intercourse with Denmark proper.

The greatest caution should also be exercised in regard to transactions with any part of Norway. No commitments should be entered into with persons or concerns in any part of Norway without previous consultation with the Commerce Department of the Government of India.

H. C. Prior,
Additional Secretary to the Government of India.
